Mrs. Defries Answers Mrs. Wilcox's Attack on Her Genealogy.

Mrs. Defries decidedly repudiates the statement in the Home Rule Republican that any haole had to do with the genealogy published by her authority. The records from which the genealogy was taken were the same ones from which Mrs. Wilcox worked out her own genealogy, and are absolutely correct. This is Mrs. Defries' own statement. The following further communication from her will be of interest in this connection:

Editor Advertiser—Kilioulaniulama-mao (w.) is the true issue of Kiwalao (k.) and Kalanikaulikilokalaniakua (w.). She was born at Pakaalaneo, Maui, after the death of Kuali (k.), and after the battle of Puhakumano, in Molokai, between Kalanopuu (k.) and Keemoku (k.). Kalanopuu (k.) fled to Maui for refuge; in due time he took his granddaughter Kilioulaniulama-mao (w.) to Kau, Hawaii. She grew up under the care of Iwikaukau (w.) and a chief known as Keeeulani (k.), a half-brother to Kalanopuu, grandfather to J. Nawahi (k.) and others, and after the death of Captain Cook she and her retinue returned to Maui. There she married the chief warrior, Kapakahili (k.). Their only issue was Kapakahililulama-mao (k.), who grew up under the care of Kamehameha Kauokoa (k.), who married Kallipakalua (w.). Their issue was my grandfather Kalimakahililulama-mao (k.).

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS MONTHLY MEETING

Money is Needed by the Organization for Its Good Work.

At the monthly meeting of the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association held last evening, the following were present: President T. Clive Davies, Vice President J. P. Cooke, Messrs. A. B. Wood, C. H. Cooke, C. H. Atherton, Theodore Richards, Edgar Wood, R. H. Trent was elected a member of the board and was also elected to the post of Recording Secretary, to succeed J. M. Moore, who is now in Chicago studying to prepare himself for Association work.

The question of fitting up a room in the second story of the Association building for the Juniors was discussed, and the Junior committee hopes to enlist the aid of ladies interested.

Classes were reported as making progress, and new gymnasium classes were being formed. The sum of $356 was reported as being taken in last month by the secretary for membership fees, and $33 for educational fees. Unusual expenses on the building within the last few months have drained the treasury, and it was estimated that $2,000 would no more than put the Association in condition to give it an opportunity to forge ahead.

The week of prayer for Christian Associations begins next Sunday, and members' meetings will be held after business hours every day. It is expected that the city pastors will speak at one of their services of the work of the Association the world over, or set apart one of their Wednesday evening meetings for the purpose.

A SHEAF OF HAWAIIAN VERSE

Hawaii is developing a kind of culinary poetry which, if not altogether metrical, is at least appetizing. Mr. Testa, our leading gastronome, is the publisher, and the writer, or chef, has long been known to local fame as the Sweet Singer of Makapuu Point. Here are specimen verses of recent origin:

A DEFENDER OF BRISKET.

Pray, did you ever eat cold brisket with biscuit?
It is good for breakfast and lunch.
Crisp biscuit with well cooked brisket.

Pack a slice of cold brisket
Betwixt a couple of biscuit.
Put mustard on your brisket,
And butter, of course, the biscuit.

Mix vinegar with the mustard, for your brisket,
And sprinkle sugar on the butter of the biscuit. "Sea?"

When you want a stout dinner,
Try a slice of hot brisket—
With potatoes and cabbage,
But not between biscuit.
That is more for a lunch,
The biscuit and brisket.

—Anne M. Prescott.

NIU.

Oh, I beg of you to learn
To make wheaten pancakes like Niu!
For I've never known of but a few,
Could make pancakes like pancakes of Niu!
So white, so puffy and light—they are all right!

Those delicious pancakes of Niu,
As soft as down, and all done brown,
(In any town, be worth a crown),
But, perhaps, you've eaten the wheaten pancakes of Niu?

In this town they can never be beat,
So crisp and so sweet, those fried pancakes of wheat.

As big as a saucer, and looking so neat,
Oh, it's a treat to take your seat
Where they'll pass the pancakes of Niu!
(If I were you, I'd never neglect
To learn to make pancakes like Niu!)

The pancakes light, they are a sight,
When piled on a platter high;
And it makes you ask (with a sigh) the reason why

So few can make pancakes like Niu.
I must beg of you all to begin
To make sweet, tender pancakes like Niu.

For, if you travel this whole world through,
You'll ne'er find pancakes better than Niu.
